SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

Nos. 73-1820 AND 74-132

Paul R. Philbrook, Etc.
Appellant,
73-1820 v.
Jean Glodgett et al.
Caspar W. Weinberger, Secretary of Health, Education,
and Welfare, Appellant,
74-132 v.
Jean Glodgett et al.

On Appeals from the United States District Court for the District of Vermont.

[May —, 1975]

MR. JUSTICE REHNQUIST delivered the opinion of the Court.

In these consolidated appeals we are called upon to construe a provision of the Social Security Act of 1935 (Act), as amended, and to ascertain whether a Vermont welfare regulation impermissibly conflicts with that provision. A three-judge District Court held that it did, 368 F. Supp. 211 (Vt. 1973), and we noted probable jurisdiction in the appeal of appellant Philbrook, Commissioner of the Vermont Department of Social Services, in No. 73-1820, and postponed consideration of the question of jurisdiction in the appeal of appellant Weinberger, Secretary of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in No. 74-132. 419 U. S. 963 (1973). Philbrook's appeal presents only the question of whether the Vermont welfare regulation in question conflicts with § 407 (b) (2) (C) (ii) of the Act, as amended, 42 U. S. C.
