Re: No. 75-250- Charlotte v. Firefighters

Dear Thurgood,

Would you be willing to delete the first full paragraph on page 3 and its accompanying footnote (2), and to change the opening words of the last sentence of the opinion on page 7 to read "Since we find the challenged classification is not invidiously discriminatory . . ." ? If these changes were to be made, I'd gladly join your opinion for the Court.

Sincerely yours,

P.S.

Dear Thurgood,

If you plan no further changes in this opinion, I should appreciate your adding the following at the foot thereof:

"MR. JUSTICE STEWART concurs in the judgment upon the ground that the classification challenged in this case is not invidiously discriminatory and does not, therefore, violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Sincerely yours,

City of Charlotte et al., Petitioners, v. Local 660, International Association of Fire- fighters, et al.	}	On Writ of Certiorari to the United States Court of Ap- peals for the Fourth Circuit.

[June —, 1976]

MR. JUSTICE MARSHALL delivered the opinion of the Court.

The city of Charlotte, N. C., refuses to withhold from the paychecks of its firefighters dues owing to their union, Local 660, International Association of Firefighters. We must decide whether this refusal violates the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment.

I

Local 660 represents some 351 of the 543 uniformed members of the Charlotte Fire Department. Since 1969 the union learned that it could obtain a private group requested the city to withhold dues owing to the union from the paychecks of those union members who agree to a checkoff. The city has refused each request. After the union learned that it could obtain a private group life insurance policy for its membership only if it had a dues checkoff agreement with the city, the union and its officers filed suit in federal court alleging, inter alia, that the city's refusal to withhold the dues of union members violated the Equal Protection Clause of the

I

Local 660 represents some 351 of the 543 uniformed members of the Charlotte Fire Department. Since 1969 the union and individual members have repeatedly requested the city to withhold dues owing to the union from the paychecks of those union members who agree to a checkoff. The city has refused each request. After the union learned that it could obtain a private group life insurance policy for its membership only if it had a dues checkoff agreement with the city, the union and its officers filed suit in federal court alleging, inter alia, that the city's refusal to withhold the dues of union members violated the Equal Protection Clause of the

Re: No. 75-250 - City of Charlotte v. Firefighters

Dear Thurgood:

I join your proposed opinion circulated May 19th. I would prefer, in your footnote 1, to see the word "unsupported", which comes immediately before the word "allegation" in the eighth line, deleted, because my understanding of the applicable test for jurisdictional amounts is that unless the allegation is controverted it need not be "supported". But I join your circulation regardless of whether you adopt this suggestion.
