MEMORANDUM TO THE CONFERENCE

RE: Metromedia, Inc. v. City of San Diego, No. 80-195

Henry Lind has called my attention to a typographical error in my Metromedia dissent. On page 12 of the slip opinion, four lines from the bottom, the word "commercial" should read "noncommercial." The last sentence on the page would then begin: "To say noncommercial speech receives a greater degree of constitutional protection, however... ."

I have asked Henry to make the change in the official reports.

Regards,

cc: Henry Lind
